Travel-related and Accident Abroad Claims

We have a specialist team to deal with claims relating to travel, holidays and accidents – whether in the UK or abroad

Accidents abroad or during travel can range from the stressful to the life-changing. We have a team of lawyers with decades of experience of dealing with claims, which are often complex.

The circumstances could be anything from skiing accidents to road traffic accidents to injuries sustained at theme parks.

In each case, we offer pragmatic and empathetic advice, looking at all the possible claims, including:

- medical costs in the UK or abroad
- costs of rehabilitation or future care
- compensation for pain or injury
- loss of earnings or earning potential
- loss of enjoyment of a holiday.

For accidents involving spinal injuries, we have a separate team of specialist lawyers, given the specific legal and medical issues involved.

At each stage – from immediately after an accident to the final settlement – we calmly take clients through all the practical steps they can take to secure their financial position. This ranges from telling them what to photograph or do at the scene of an accident, to advising them about ‘after-the-event’ insurance to litigate if necessary.

All-round support

Throughout each claim, we use state-of-the-art case management software to maximise ease, efficiency and convenience for clients – from enabling them to upload photos from smartphones, to prompt progress reporting.

We can also use our extensive networks to connect clients and their families with
